ATTENTION: ASPIRING YOUNG JOURNALISTS...

OUR PURPOSE:

To provide high school students with a fun newspaper internship opportunity, to promote awareness of Asian American issues among younger generations, and to work towards greater Asian American representation in the media.

INTERNS' DUTIES:

1. Manage "Youth Forum," the monthly English section in the Pacific Times.
Established in 1987, Pacific Times is a weekly Taiwanese American newspaper.
2. Attend and report on events in the Asian American community.
3. Attend workshops, seminars, and field trips arranged by the program.

QUALIFICATIONS:

You must be a current high school student with an ability to write, interest in the Asian American community, willingness to learn newspaper design, and commitment to internship duties.

No prior journalism experience is necessary.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED...

in joining the JIP team for the 2010-2011 year, please contact Hilda Lin to get more information about the program and to begin the application process.

Thank you.
